

Get over for the Bremen EightsCup 2010

The Bremer AchterCup (Bremen EightsCup) 2010 is a sprint event to be held in Bremen on September 19th 2010. It is intended for senior women, senior men, both masters women and men and juniors. You and your team can be a part of this unique event. Thousands of spectators will be cheering for the crews along the course.

The course is located in the heart of Bremen, near the famous „Schlachte“. This is the place to meet, eat and celebrate in Old Bremen, featuring nice restaurants, bars and beergardens. The river Weser runs through a spectacular area, with sailing ships and old buildings lining the course. A number of crews from Britain and Ireland including Cambridge University Boat Club, London Boat Club and the Irish National Team have already experienced the unique “Bremen feeling”.

Bremen EightsCup starts on September 18th with a big party where all crews will be presented to the audience. On 19th September the rowing event starts at 10 a.m. with timetrials. All eights will race on 350m sprint course. After the timetrial crews will be seeded according to their timetrial result. Further racing will then be one on one, from quarter- and semifinals to finals.

All teams will be rowing more than one race, you will have up to 3 more races depending on the number of entries for the event.

At the end of competition the winner of the women’s or men’s eights will receive a cheque for € 1.000 but more important for all athletes are the brilliant impressions of such an excellent event.

Be a part of the 4th Bremer EightsCup and enjoy this event.

We look forward to seeing you in Bremen !

More information:

www.bremer-achtercup2010.de or contact Lars Wichert: wichert@bremer-achtercup2010.de

A limited number of boats and oars can be hired out to foreign crews.